

MHR 765: NONPROFIT BOARD LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

Fall 2015 Syllabus (8/25/15)

"A good board is a victory, not a gift." – Cyril O. Houle

COURSE TEAM

Dennis Johnson, MBA, is a Founding Partner at Sort Sol Group. He brings more than 20 years of experience in the corporate, nonprofit and philanthropic sectors to his coaching and consulting work. Dennis has strong skills in organizational development, planning and facilitation. In addition, he has in-depth experience in engagement, leadership development, individual and organizational learning, budget planning, project management and human resources functions. He currently serves as a board of director for the Wisconsin Nonprofit Association.

Sarah Marty, MAB, teaches arts entrepreneurship for the UW School of Business, is Director of Arts Programs for UW Continuing Studies, and is a Faculty Affiliate at the UW Arts Institute. Producing Artistic Director for Four Seasons Theatre, she has worked with a variety of nonprofit boards and organizations in the community. At the helm for large-scale collaborative events and programs, she leads the annual UW Varsity Band Show and produced the Overture Center 10th Anniversary American Kaleidoscope Program.

Kathie Nichols, MBA, serves as Program Coordinator with Sort Sol Group. She brings more than 23 years of nonprofit work experience, having served as the Business Administrator for a 1,000 member church in Madison from 1990 through 2013. Kathie also has a wealth of nonprofit Boards of Directors experience, currently serving on three Madison-area nonprofit boards.

Ben Williams, MPA, is a Founding Partner at Sort Sol Group. He provides one-on-one advising, delivers nonprofit education on strategy, finance, business planning and capacity building topics. Ben received his Master's degree in Public Affairs from the La Follette School of Public Affairs and serves on the Governance Committee of Opportunity Finance Network, a national network of investors who believe in aligning capital with justice.

COURSE READING

The Governance Series: the second edition of BoardSource's groundbreaking series helps board members, chief executives and senior staff understand the fundamental elements of service common to most boards. (Purchased directly through Sort Sol Group at a cost of $83)

COURSE DESCRIPTION AND OVERVIEW

This service-learning course engages graduate students who seek an opportunity to develop a commitment to community and civic engagement through volunteer leadership of nonprofit organizations in Madison/Dane County.

Students will enroll for 3 credits each semester to complete a sequence worth 6 credits. They will serve on the boards of nonprofits (in a non-voting capacity) and complete an independent governance project for their assigned nonprofit by the end of the second semester.

Students will meet a total of ten (10) times in the fall semester (full-day kickoff and Weds. from 6-9pm). They will participate in an online discussion forum using Learn at UW/Desire 2 Learn (D2L) and complete reflection papers on applicable content.

Outside of regular class time, students will meet with the Program Coordinator at least once over the course of the semester to discuss the governance project development. They will also have the opportunity for small group coaching on projects during some classes.

Students will also attend individual board meetings, advisor/mentor meetings and board committee meetings for their community partner organization.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of the course, each student should be able to:

1. Understand the governance issues facing nonprofit organizations.
2. Recognize the differing roles and responsibilities of board members and executive directors, as well as the challenges both encounter in working to support the mission, vision and values of the organization together.
3. Extend their network and experience in forging relationships with a diverse set of community members.

COURSE TOPICS

Within this course, the following topics will be explored in the context of building higher impact board governance: roles and responsibilities of board members, legal aspects of nonprofits/advocacy, financial management, strategic planning/collaboration, fund development, structures and the board/staff partnership.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

All students will serve on a nonprofit governance board as part of this course. Their service will include involvement in working committees or a project with the board chair, committee chair, executive director, or other staff member. By the end of the course, students will be:

KNOWING

- a. Explain the responsibilities of a non-profit governance board including the duties of the board chair and board members.
- b. Describe the key strategic and tactical issues being addressed by their organization's board.
- c. Examine how to develop working committees with the needed roles and skills to address an issue.

DOING

- a. Demonstrate the processes and protocols used by a board to shepherd key issues through decision-making and into action by the organization.
- b. Work with a variety of board members and organizational staff to develop and implement an approach that addresses an important challenge of the organization.

BEING

- a. Identify how their knowledge, experiences and skills are most valuable in board service.
- b. Examine the value of boards and board membership to themselves and their organization.

INSPIRING

- a. Articulate the ways in which boards can motivate organizations to be successful.
- b. Reflect on their own professional development strategy for improving their value to future boards.

NETWORKING

- a. Utilize effective team-based and interpersonal communication skills as a means to build their professional network with board members and leaders.

ATTENDANCE

ATTENDANCE: Blended learning is a collaborative process. Sharing experiences, life lessons and personal opinions in class discussion will help us make relevant connections with real world experience, allowing us to apply the knowledge we glean from the texts and other sources.

EMERGENCY POLICY: Emergencies arise, and the late policy can be waived at the instructor's discretion in case of an emergency. Emergencies are defined as events that are serious and unexpected. Emergencies cannot be written on the calendar in advance. Examples of emergencies are: heart attacks, car accidents, serious health crises of the student or someone in the student's immediate family. Examples of non-emergencies include family weddings, vacations, conferences, or any other event that is known in advance.

UW MADISON ACADEMIC POLICIES

Source: <http://www.mcburney.wisc.edu/information/documentation/general.php>

DISABILITY ACCOMMODATIONS: If you are a student with a documented disability and are interested in accommodations for this course, contact the UW McBurney Disability Resource Center. Each student shall be expected to make timely and appropriate disclosure and requests to effectively set up services. All requests for services and disabilities documentation are confidential. If you have questions about services, accommodations, or documentation requirements email: mcburney@studentlife.wisc.edu.

INCOMPETE GRADES: An Incomplete may be reported for a student who has carried a subject with a passing grade until near the end of the semester and then, because of illness or other unusual and substantiated cause beyond his/her control, has been unable to take or complete the final examination, or to complete some limited amount of term work. An Incomplete is not given to a student who stays away from a final examination unless the student proves to the instructor that he or she was prevented from attending as indicated above. In the absence of such proof the grade shall be F; even with such proof, if his/her work has convinced the instructor that he/she cannot pass, the grade shall be F.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY (<http://students.wisc.edu/doso/acadintegrity.html>):

- All work submitted should be your own
- Be sure to properly cite all sources used
- Paraphrase correctly and accurately
- Plagiarism: What It Is and How to Recognize and Avoid It

PRIVACY OF STUDENT RECORDS – FERPA: The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974, also known as the Buckley Amendment, provides that students have the right to see their records (accessibility) and to determine who will see their records (confidentiality).
